

Gateway Women's Care is seeking suitable applicants for the position of Center Nurse (BSN, RN, LPN) or Registered Diagnostic Medical Sonographer (RDMS) for its Durham and Raleigh women's care centers. These positions may be either part time or full time.

Please direct all inquiries by email to Support@gatewaywomens.care or contact the administrative office at 919.873.2440.

Responsibilities

The Center Nurse or RDMS supports medical services at the center by performing limited obstetric ultrasounds, providing medical and education services to the clients, and acts as a client advocate. This position reports to the Nurse Manager and Director of Client Services.

Skills/Qualifications

The Center Nurse/ RDMS will be a certified and registered medical professional in good standing, possessing good communication skills and the ability to create a safe and effective environment. A team-oriented disposition is essential as is good judgment, nursing/medical skills, Microsoft Office and entry- level database (CRM) competency along with the capacity to manage time and work effectively in a pregnancy center setting.

Proficiency

The Center Nurse or RDMS usually has a four-year college degree or relevant associate degree and practical nursing and medical experience.

Training Provided

Should the successful applicant be a registered nurse, Limited Obstetric Ultrasound training will be provided. RDMS applicants would benefit from having obstetric experience.

*Application forms and detailed job description will be supplied upon request.

July, 2023